READINGS FOR SUNDAY

January 21, 2024

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Jon 3:1-5, 10
 Second Reading: 1 Cor 7:29-31
 Gospel: Mk 1:14-20

FOCUS: Jesus is calling us today.

Jesus is calling us today. Maybe he is calling us to drop something we have been clinging to. Maybe he is calling us to lay down our weeping or rejoicing, to move into something new. Maybe he is calling us to listen. In the precious time we give to him, he will give us all we need to answer his call, big or small.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Jonah answers God’s call to preach in Nineveh and the city repents. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Corinthians to act as if time is running out. The Gospel tells of the beginning of Jesus’ ministry, as he calls the Galileans to repent and believe in the Gospel. We also hear of the call of James, John, Andrew, and Simon.

Readings for next week, Sunday January 28, 2024

- 1) Dt 18:15-20
- 2) 1 Cor 7:32-35
- 3) Mk 1:21-28

The Pastor's Page

Dear Friends:

“She’ll be here tomorrow at 7 AM.” There was no way I was going to miss the appointment, even with the parish Mass at 8 AM. Upon arrival, I observed scores of women with their children, several businessmen wearing expensive suits, a young father carrying his special-needs toddler son, and inside, a small old woman sitting barefoot on the floor about five feet away, hands and feet gnarled by arthritis. The unaccompanied female voices lent a certain nobility to what were extraordinarily uninspired hymns. The little boy resting in his father’s arms slept contentedly; peace and tranquility emanated throughout the chapel, and I hoped to pass the woman a note after Mass, requesting prayers for a family member. Alas, it was not to be. The celebrant decided to exercise his preaching skills for 40 minutes, which left me 6 minutes to dash through Harlem to get back for my own Mass in Morningside Heights. No matter. To all appearances, we accomplished nothing that Tuesday morning. The battered women and their hungry children still faced a long road ahead; the little boy’s deformity, as far as anybody could tell, would remain; my father’s suffering would persist. Yet somehow, it was enough that we spent that hour in eternity, whether or not we did so with St. Teresa of Calcutta in attendance. The God who beckoned us to heavenly glory would remain with us on the streets of New York City to face the challenges of this world.

This Monday, the Church calls for a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. More than 50 years after the infamous Roe v. Wade decision, and a year since its reversal, the tragedy of lives lost through abortion continues. As we Catholics know, human law, ratified by the stroke of a pen, does not always reflect the law of nature.

It often fails to guarantee fundamental human needs: life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. And because it is of human origin, it is powerless to transform the heart, frail and fickle as it may be. Only God’s law, for the salvation of souls, can do that. Certainly, the battle for the hearts and minds of our dear nation is far from settled. So what do we Catholics, as Catholics, bring to the discussion?

Without for a moment abandoning the effort to correct unjust laws, I believe Catholics can make an invaluable contribution to the tone of civil conversation in our nation over a most contentious issue. As we discussed in our “Ten Principles” class, debate is most effective when we avoid appeals to emotion, which only serve to obscure, not clarify, an ethical problem. We do well to pray for, and encourage, the call to beneficence, summed up in Jesus’ command to “Do unto others as you would have others do unto you.” Like Mother Teresa, who had better things to do than fight with others, we know that communion with God—worship—is important business, and that responding to our neighbors’ basic needs is to practice what we preach. Kindness toward those with whom we disagree gives us a foot in the door of people’s hearts. In the end, we know that our control over any situation, to say nothing of other people, has its limits; we must trust that the good Lord is sovereign over the vicissitudes of our world. In the meantime, we make it our business to exult in God’s Providence. Our joy in the Lord, come what may, is perhaps the most effective quality we possess in the defense of human life.

Faithfully,

Fr. Valentine

Fr. Valentine

Dear Friends:

This year I will be offering a six-week series on the spirituality of St. Ignace of Loyola, the Founder of the Society of Jesus (the “Jesuits”). It is not strictly speaking a “retreat,” because a genuine experience of the Spiritual Exercises requires a “one-on-one” relationship with a spiritual director. Instead, we will give participants an introduction to Ignatian prayer, including its:

Purpose,
Presupposition,
First Principle and Foundation,
Examination of Conscience,
Meditation & Contemplation
Preparation, Colloquy and Repetition,

Application of the senses,
Classic methods,
Classes of Men,
Degrees of Humility,
Contemplation to Attain Divine Love,
Discernment of Spirits

The Jesuits understand themselves as “contemplatives in action,” and Ignatian Prayer is often hailed as the most practicable for busy people—married, celibate, young and old, student, working and retired—for whom a monastic regimen is not possible. The purpose is to familiarize our parishioners with a tried and true form of spiritual discipline they can adapt to their own special circumstances. We will meet at 7 PM in the Basement of St. Mary’s Church on the following dates:

February 5 (Monday)

February 26 (Monday)

February 12 (Monday)

March 6 (Wednesday)

February 19 (Monday)

March 11 (Monday)

Please join us for as many of our conferences as you can make. You can also follow them on the St. Mary’s streaming service. More information to follow.

Thank you.
Fr. Valentine

Prayer to
St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protector against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;

And do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen
(Prayer by Pope Leo XIII)

We are all called to follow Jesus in some way. God wants some people to give up their lives for others like Jesus did, and some people He wants to look after the poor and sick. Some people are called to care for children and some to build things. Some people are called to be special followers of Our Lord as priests and religious.

We are in URGENT need of a 7th Grade catechist OR catechist assistant.

Please reach out to stmarysreled440@gmail.com

JONAH GOES TO NINEVEH: TRUE OR FALSE?

How well do you know the second part of Jonah's story? Which of these are true and which are false?

1. After Jonah's incident with being inside a whale for three days, God asked him to go to Nineveh again. True or false?
2. Jonah refused to do what God asked this time too. True or false?
3. Nineveh was only a small city, so Jonah walked across it in a couple hours. True or false?
4. Jonah cried out that in forty days the city would be overthrown. True or false?
5. The people ignored Jonah and went on with their lives. True or false?
6. All the people believed in God, proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth. True or false?
7. God saw what the people were doing and decided that the city would not be overthrown. True or false?
